Welcome to this elegant Spanish Colonial-style home, designed and built in 2001 by internationally renowned hotel and resort architect Robert Glazier. Behind the street façade, three separate structures are linked by enclosed courtyards and extravagantly landscaped gardens. In the main house, mahogany-framed French doors open from every downstairs room, letting in sunlight, color, and fresh air. Two of the three upstairs bedrooms connect to roof terraces overlooking the rear garden. The two-bedroom, one-bath guest house features a fully equipped kitchen, and the detached two-car garage doubles as an artist's studio/study/playroom.

- Five bedrooms and three baths in the main house
- Large living room, formal dining room, chef's kitchen
- Two-bedroom, one-bath guest house with full kitchen
- Approximately 3,367 square feet of living space
